GUITARLINK PLUS

GUITAR-TO-USB CABLE WITH AMPLIFIER & EFFECT SOFTWARE

NATIVE INSTRUMENTS Guitar Rig 4 LE

Everything you need to record your guitar on your computer.

Shape your guitar's sound and get the perfect tone using your Mac or PC! GUITARLINK PLUS combines ION's GUITARLINK guitar-to-USB cable with Native Instruments' Guitar Rig LE software to empower guitarists everywhere with the processing capability of their computers.

GUITARLINK, The USB Guitar Cable

Whether you're recording, performing or practicing, GUITARLINK PLUS enables you to easily connect guitars, basses, and other instruments directly to your computer. The internal, analog-to-digital conversion technology injects studio-quality, 16-bit, 44.1 kHz digital audio straight into your computer - no drivers needed. Go ahead, stand up and dig into your performance, the GUITARLINK PLUS cable is 16.5-feet long, giving you plenty of room to move.

Guitar Rig LE Software®

Recording on your computer is one of the best ways to hash out a lead or capture an idea before it's gone forever. GUITARLINK PLUS gives you the freedom to record your ideas at a moment's notice. The included Guitar Rig LE software from Native Instruments puts three world-class guitar and bass amplifiers, three speaker cabinets, 12 professional effects, and a metronome right on your computer! Need to tune your guitar? Guitar Rig LE even has a built in tuner, so you can tune your guitar quickly and get back to the music.

Step into the world of computer processing and elevate your tone with GUITARLINK PLUS.
